CANCELLATION DATE: January 12, 2019 12:01 A.M.

Dear Policyholder(s):

Thank you for allowing us to provide your Homeowners insurance under this policy. We are sorry that we cannot continue this insurance. Therefore, your policy will not be renewed, in accordance with the terms and conditions of your policy and the laws of your state, as of CANCELLATION DATE shown above.

This insurance coverage is no longer acceptable to State Farm Fire and Casualty Company because of a material increase in hazard as evidenced by the fact that you no longer reside at this residence as required by our policy.

We are notifying the additional interest(s) listed on your policy (if any) of our actions.

For your protection, you or an authorized representative can contact an insurance agent or producer who will advise you regarding the availability of essential property insurance coverage to responsible applicants through the New Mexico Property Insurance program, also known as the Fair Plan.

If you desire to contact the New Mexico Property Insurance Program directly, you may do so by calling or writing the program through the address or phone number below:
